

An initiative to save 200 little happy hearts

Dabboo Ratra/ANI

Akshay Kumar and Dr Ramakanta Panda launch the Times of India's campaign Happy Heart India — Have a heart to save a heart

On World Health Day, Asian Heart Institute and Bollywood star Akshay Kumar, along with The Times of India, launched the campaign Happy Heart India — Have a heart to save a heart — to help the children in the country suffering from heart diseases.

Talking about the initiative, Akshay said, "I am delighted to take this message all over the country. Asian Heart Institute has always been at the forefront of charitable causes and excellence in cardiac surgery. This campaign is about surgical interventions for the underprivileged, in the spirit of community service."

If you know a child below 12 years of age, who needs cardiac surgery, but cannot afford it, it's time for you to do something about it.

TO KNOW MORE,
TURN TO PAGE 3